

Native Food Directory

Purpose

The purpose of the Native Food Directory is to help consumers locate American Indian, Alaskan Native, and Native Hawaiian food producers.

This free, two-page application will be used to create a listing in the Native Food Directory, developed and administered by the Office for American Indian, Alaskan Native, and Native Hawaiian Programs (OAIANNHP), Administration for Community Living (ACL), U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS).

Instructions

All sections marked "required" should be filled out to the best of your ability. Please email your completed application to nativefood@acl.hhs.gov in order to be considered for publication. We will email you once your application has been received and processed.

Disclaimer

By submitting this application, you agree to be published in the Native Food Directory.

OAIANNHP/ACL/HHS does not verify, promote, or endorse any individual food producer, and it is their responsibility to research and follow all laws and regulations regarding the sale of their products, including any required safety and sanitation measures.

Individual listings may be updated or deleted by the food producer by contacting OAIANNHP staff at nativefood@acl.hhs.gov. OAIANNHP/ACL/HHS reserves the right to remove or modify any listing at its discretion.
