Wednesday, September 20, 2023 at 2:00 p.m. ET

Did you know there are certain services you are required to provide with your nutrition and supportive services grants? Did you know there are services you are required to provide through your caregiver grant? But...have no fear! We will be reviewing these requirements during this webinar and think about different ways you can meet these grant requirements.

We hope you can join us to review grant requirements and make sure everyone has a plan to fulfill these requirements, no matter where you are in your program planning process!
